Annex

Report of the Committee established by resolution 661 (1990) concerning the situation between Iraq and Kuwait pursuant to paragraph 6, subparagraph (f), of the guidelines to facilitate full international implementation of paragraphs 24, 25 and 27 of Security Council resolution 687 (1991)

1. The present report is submitted by the Security Council Committee established by resolution 661 (1990) concerning the situation between Iraq and Kuwait, in accordance with paragraph 6, subparagraph (f) of the guidelines to facilitate full international implementation of paragraphs 24, 25 and 27 of Security Council resolution 687 (1991) of 3 April 1991 approved by Security Council resolution 700 (1991) of 17 June 1991 (S/22660, annex).

2. Under paragraph 6, subparagraph (f), of the guidelines, the Committee is required to report at 90-day intervals to the Security Council on the implementation of the arms and related sanctions against Iraq contained in the relevant resolutions of the Council. The present report is the twenty-second submitted under the above-mentioned guidelines. The preceding reports were submitted on 13 September (S/23036) and 10 December 1991 (S/23279), 12 March (S/23708), 11 June (S/24083), 8 September (S/24545) and 4 December 1992 (S/24912), 19 March (S/25442), 7 June (S/25930), 7 September (S/26430) and 14 December 1993 (S/26874), 4 March (S/1994/274), 6 June (S/1994/695), 2 September (S/1994/1027) and 29 November 1994 (S/1994/1367), 1 March (S/1995/169), 30 May (S/1995/442), 25 August (S/1995/744) and 27 November 1995 (S/1995/992) and 21 February (S/1996/127), 20 May (S/1996/361) and 20 August 1996 (S/1996/676).

3. By paragraph 12 of the guidelines, all States are requested to report to the Committee any information that may have come to their attention relating to possible violations of the arms and related sanctions against Iraq committed by other States or foreign nationals. During the period under review, the Committee received a communication dated 30 October 1996 from the Permanent Representative of Jordan to the United Nations, drawing the attention of the Committee to the search conducted by the International Inspection Team in Iraq of the offices of a Jordanian company (ALBA) and the house of its manager on the grounds of suspected relations with Iraq's missile programme. The Jordanian communication pointed out that the investigation had concluded that ALBA was not connected in any way whatsoever with Iraq's missiles and weapons of mass destruction.

4. In accordance with paragraphs 13 and 15 of the guidelines, all States and international organizations are required to consult the Committee on the question of whether certain items fall within the provisions of paragraph 24 of resolution 687 (1991), as well as in cases relating to dual-use or multiple-use items, that is, items meant for civilian use but with potential for diversion or conversion to military use. During the period covered by the report, no States or international organizations have consulted the Committee on these questions.

5. By paragraph 14 of the guidelines, international organizations are requested to provide the Committee with any relevant information that may come to their attention. During the period under review, no information as requested by paragraph 14 of the guidelines has been received by the Committee.

6. The Committee will continue its efforts to fulfil the mandate entrusted to it. Since the last report of the Secretary-General, dated 4 December 1991 (S/22884/Add.2), no further communications have been received from Member States pursuant to paragraph 4 of Security Council resolution 700 (1991).
